

Felecia Killings

coachfeleciakillings@gmail.com | coachfeleciakillings.substack.com | Atlanta, GA

SUMMARY

An award-winning leadership coach and strategist with 15+ years experience in training educators, ministry leaders, nonprofit founders, political candidates, and community members on best practices for personal and professional success; more than 20+ years as an educator and consultant, working in the K-12 educational field and as an independent contractor in the leadership industry

QUALIFICATIONS AND SKILL SETS

- Strong organizational and leadership development
 - Strong problem-solving skills
 - Strong communication skills (reading, writing, critical thinking and analysis, synthesizing)
 - Strong creative and innovative skills
 - Listening skills
 - Collaborative skills
 - Teamwork building
 - Strong decision-making skills
 - Empathetic skills
 - Able to help nonprofit leaders, educators, ministry leaders, and more cultivate solutions to their most pressing challenges
 - Strong time-management skills
 - Self-motivated
 - Strong observational skills
 - Project management
 - Emotional aperture
 - Adaptive communication
 - Flexible thinking
 - Perspective seeking
 - Strategy building
 - Strategic disruption skills
 - Able to challenge status quo systems to prepare for new and innovate ideas that help leaders, educators, and founders succeed
-

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Leadership Coach and Consultant, Independent Contractor

January 2010 - Present

- Coordinate and facilitate monthly professional development workshops and annual leadership convention for educators, ministry leaders, and nonprofit founders
- Advise educators on effective teaching strategies and classroom management practices
- Empower leaders with practical tools and techniques to boost their constituents' (students, congregation members, clients, etc.) engagement and achievement
- Unique skills in teaching educators how to ensure their protections in educational environments so they deliver superb services to scholars, build strong professional relationships with parents, and guard themselves against work-place hostility and violence
- Unique skills in teaching leaders how to handle on-the-job challenges (hostile work environments, difficult clients, smear campaigns, etc.) and using their stories to empower the people God brings their way
- Host leadership podcast and blog at coachfeleciakillings.substack.com
- Train more than 100+ leaders and clients through my signature leadership development program
- Instruct leaders on effective methods of communication and how to reach organizational goals through team-building, building brand awareness, book publishing, and launching speaking platforms

Educator

K-12 Consultant and English Language Arts Teacher | Fairfield-Suisun Unified School District

June 2005 - August 2010

- Developing and implementing a language-based curriculum
 - Providing quality instruction, assigning homework, and conducting tests
 - Evaluating student progress through classroom observation, grading, and other methods
 - Creating instructional resources and providing learning materials and language reference books to students
-

EDUCATION & AWARDS

Bachelor of Arts

English and African American Studies
University of California, Davis | 2005

Master of Arts

Education
University of California, Davis | 2007

Leadership Award

2 Titus Leadership Coach Award for Excellence in Leadership Development to Women Leaders

AUTHORSHIP AND PODCASTING

The Conscious Conservative Leadership Book Series

Revival Begins In You Leadership Podcast |
Hosted on Substack